RULE IN ATHENS

CRIES FOR A REPUBLIC ARE HEARD AMONG THE REVO-LUTIONARY ARMY

"Disturbers of Orders" Regardless of Political Affiliation to Be Punished -All the Strategic Points In the City -Leaders Received With Enthu-

Athens.-A "Provisional Revolutionary Committee" has been formed and has issued the following proclamation: "An accord having been reached with the Triantafillakos Government, who resigned, the Provisional Revolutionary Committee will assume power with the least possible delay. "Until now it has been relying for the maintenance of order and the protection of all citizens, without exception, upon the patriotism of the Hellenes and the ardent desire of the people for reconcilliation and bridging over the chasm-a desire the rev clutionary party espouses.

"Disturbers of orders, to whatever political party they belong, will be punished in accordance with Revoludonary Committee."

It is reported that a section of the revolutionary army is imbued with the idea of a republic, and that the accession of King George may be accompanied with difficulties. An impressive pro-Venizelist demostration took place in the city to day. Thousands of persons, including troops, paraded the streets, singing KING CONSTANTINE portraits of the former Premier. The throng marched to the French Legation, crying, "Viva France!" The revolutionists have occupied all the strategic points and the Ministries. Colonels Plasticas and Gobatas leaders in the revolution, entreed Athens at the head of their troops and were received with enthusiasm.
